

Neurodiversity Training for Employers

Create a neurodivergent inclusive workplace that helps attract and retain a wide range of skills.

Training with ADD-vance helps build inclusive workplaces while also directly funding our frontline work with neurodivergent families.

We offer a range of bespoke training options for employers including:

NEURODIVERSITY IN A NUTSHELL

Duration: 1 hour delivered online

Build awareness, understanding and reduce stigma associated with neurodiversity at work. Great for companies who are just getting started with their neuroinclusion journey.

NEURODIVERSITY LEADERSHIP: MANAGING DIVERSE TEAMS

Duration: 1-2 hours delivered online or face to face

Increase awareness, understanding, and confidence in hiring, managing, and supporting neurodivergent teams. Great for managers who would like to build their knowledge and skills to support teams.

BUILDING A NEUROINCLUSIVE ORGANISATION

Duration: 1.5-2 hours delivered online or face to face

Build awareness, understanding and introduce practical ways to be more neuroinclusive considering culture, disclosure and the employee lifecycle. Great for HR Managers in companies who are more advanced on their neurodiversity journey and are looking to take action.
