

NEURODIVERSITY CHAMPION

Different Brains. Different Needs. Everyone Belongs

What is a Neurodiversity Champion?

A Neurodiversity Champion helps our school:

- ✓ Understand that everyone's brain works differently.
- ✓ Make school kinder and more inclusive.
- ✓ Share ideas about what helps children feel calm and ready to learn.

✨ You do not need to be neurodivergent to be a champion.

What do Champions do?

- ✓ Share pupil ideas and opinions
- ✓ Help adults understand what helps children learn
- ✓ Notice what helps people feel included
- ✓ Promote kindness and understanding
- ✓ Help plan displays, assemblies, or events
- ✓ Show that using tools and strategies is a strength

Things Champions Might Talk About

- ✓ Quiet or calm spaces
- ✓ Movement and breaks
- ✓ Clear instructions
- ✓ Tools and Strategies (fidgets, water, calm time)
- ✓ Feeling safe and included

✨ You can use words, drawings, symbols, or notes.

What Champions Are Like

- ✓ Kind
- ✓ Curious
- ✓ Respectful
- ✓ Good listeners

What Champions Are NOT

- ✗ Not teachers
- ✗ Not in charge of other children
- ✗ Not expected to fix problems
- ✗ Not expected to talk about diagnoses

BIG MESSAGE

- ✓ DIFFERENT ISN'T WRONG.
- ✓ DIFFERENT IS HUMAN.
- ✓ DIFFERENT BELONGS.

Need Support?

Champions work with other champions in the school and with an adult who helps them share ideas and feel supported.

♥ Being a Neurodiversity Champion means helping everyone feel they belong.
